

PRESS RELEASE: EuroISPA appointed new Board at General Meeting

The new Board is committed to representing the interests of ISPs across Europe.

Brussels, 18 November 2025 – EuroISPA, the pan-European association of Internet Service Provider Associations, appointed its new Board, including the Association's President, Vice-President, and Treasurer, during its latest General Meeting in Brussels.

The new Board leadership includes Romain Bonenfant of Fédération Française des Télécoms as President, Lars Steffen of eco as Vice-President, and Dalia Coffetti of AIIP as Treasurer, alongside Stefan Ebenberger from ISPA Austria and Alex de Joode from AMS-IX as

Board members. The Board is responsible for coordinating the activities and budget of the Association.

Romain Bonenfant spoke on his appointment as President of EuroISPA: "I am honored to take on the role of President after several years of active involvement on EuroISPA's Board. We will stay true to our mission to represent Internet Service Providers by providing our technical expertise to EU institutions and stakeholders, and supporting our members through shared knowledge and best practices. Our strength lies in collaboration; Internet Service Providers need a strong, informed and united voice in Europe."

Lars Steffen highlighted EuroISPA's role in uniting ISPs across Europe, noting that collaboration enables common approaches and clear positions to shape balanced frameworks. Newly appointed Treasurer Dalia Coffetti added that she looks forward to supporting EuroISPA's priorities and working with the Board to ensure their efforts deliver meaningful impact.
